DICK HYLAND WINS.

Hoboken in the star bout at the Olympic A. C. in Harlem last night. Hyland from the first round to the tenth used better ring the first round to the tenth used better ring science and judgment than his opponent and at the end he soon had his man in distress. As Cy would rush in Dick was there with his right and left and on many occasions made the Hoboken boy step back Cy was very aggressive, though, and was willing at all times to force the fighting Some of his blows landed, but the majority of them went wild.

DOINGS OF POLOISTS. Great Form by Meadow Brooks-No Game at Country Club.

One of the liveliest practice games for the Meadow Brook lineup since the start of the international match trials, at Lakewood a month ago took place on Phipps Meet Papke, Sullivan, Klaus and Hugo in the victory over a selected team by 16 Meet Papke, Sullivan, Klaus and Rugo in the victory over a selected team by 16 goals to 3. The Freebooters to oppose the regulars were 1, C. C. Rumsey, 2, René LaMontagne: 3, Malcolm Stevenson, and back, W. Goadby Loew, the Coaching Club cently defeated Harry Lewis on points in a twenty round bout in Paris, France, has written to friends in this country that before leaving the other side he will try to make a match with the winner of the Bill.

Whitness and Deverage Millern agreed with the great Meadow Brook formation—the Waterburys, H. P. Whitness and Deverage Millern agried.

The turf was dry and dusty, but the ponies gridped into it well and lost none of their handiness. Whitney and J. M. Water-Lewis met in Paris on May 3, and newspaper reports just received here show that the Lancaster man was rightfully entitled to the decision. He was Lewis's master in long range work and punished the latter rather severely. Lewis, at infighting, held his own, but Houck, it appears, was the stronger from start to finish.

The fight was staged by the Wogram Club, which hung up a purse of $8,000. Nearly 10,000 spectators saw the battle and the excitement was intense. In the ninth round Houck landed on the point of the jaw with a tremendous right hand uppercut and for a moment it looked as if Lewis would cave in. But the Philadelphian rallied, and thereafter Houck was satisfied to stand him off on points. Houck is 21 years old and is 5 feet 8½, inches tall. He began his ring career in 1967. As a welterweight he defeated Young Erne, Young Loughrey, Fighting Dick Neison, Joe Hirst. Harry. Fighting Dick Neison, Joe Hirst. Harry.

Hyland's still straight jabs made Cy's head rock. In the tenth it looked for a few seconds as if the Californian would put to down and out. As Smith rushed out at the opening of the round with his head down he was met with a right hook to the inw. The blow did not seem to hother the Hoboken Cyclone, for he kept rushing ip, but Hyland was there with his left and right to stop his wild rushes.
